

Ontario Tower Buzzers Partner with San Antonio Regional Hospital

Local Inland Empire Hospital becomes the official healthcare provider of the Ontario Tower Buzzers.

ONTARIO, Calif. – March 31, 2026 – The Ontario Tower Buzzers, the Single-A affiliate of the Los Angeles Dodgers, today announced a partnership with San Antonio Regional Hospital, naming the company the official healthcare provider of Tower Buzzers baseball for the 2026 Minor League Baseball Season.

The regional healthcare provider will have signage across ONT Field for the inaugural season and sponsor several activations throughout the year. The Tower Buzzers will open their inaugural season on April 2, 2026, at ONT Field in Ontario, California, marking the arrival of Minor League Baseball in the Inland Empire.

“San Antonio Regional Hospital helps thousands of Inland Empire residents yearly, and we are really proud to partner with this longstanding community pillar,” explained Allan Benavides, General Manager of the Ontario Tower Buzzers.

“The Los Angeles Dodgers are a world-class organization loved by many in the community, so we are excited to support the Ontario Tower Buzzers and serve as their official healthcare provider,” comments John Chapman, President & CEO of San Antonio Regional Hospital.
